VOLUNTARY AFFIRMATIVE ACTION FORM - SELF IDENTIFICATION PROFILE

The company is subject to certain governmental recordkeeping and reporting requirements for the administration of civil rights laws and regulations. In order to comply with these laws, we invite employees to voluntarily self-identify their race and ethnicity. Submission of this information is voluntary and refusal to provide it will not subject you to any adverse treatment. The information will be kept confidential and will only be used in accordance with the provisions of applicable laws, executive orders, and regulations, including those that require the information to be summarized and reported to the federal government for civil rights enforcement. We also comply with government regulations including but not limited to affirmative action responsibilities as required under Executive Order 11246, Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Section 4212 of the Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Act of 1974 and Veterans Employment Opportunities Act (VEOA) of 1998. This data is for periodic reporting and will be kept in a confidential file separate from the application for employment and employee file.

Affirmative Action Definitions:

Hispanic – A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Mexico, Puerto Rico, Cuba, Central or South America, or other Spanish culture or origin, regardless of race. It does not include persons from Portuguese speaking cultures such as Portugal or Brazil.

White/Caucasian – A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, the Middle East, or North Africa.

American Indian or Alaskan Native – A person having origins in any of the original peoples of North America, and who maintains a tribal affiliation or community attachment.

Black/African American – A person having origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Native Hawaiian or Other Pacific Islander – A person having origins in any of the original peoples of Hawaii, Guam, Samoa, or other Pacific Islands.

Asian – A person having origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asian, the Indian subcontinent including for example, Cambodia, China, India, Japan, Korea, Malaysia, Pakistan, the Philippine Islands, Thailand, and Vietnam.

Persons with a Disability – For affirmative action data reporting purposes, people with disabilities are individuals with a permanent, physical, mental, or sensory impairment that substantially limits one or more major life activities. The impairment must be both permanent and material rather than slight, but not necessarily require a workplace accommodation. An impairment that is episodic or in remission is still a disability if it would substantially limit a major life activity when active. The determination of whether an impairment substantially limits a major life activity shall be made without considering temporary improvements made through mitigating measures such as medication, therapy, reasonable accommodation, prosthetics, technology, equipment, or adaptive devices (but not to include ordinary eyeglasses or contact lenses).

Special Disabled Veteran – A person who is entitled to compensation under laws administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for disability rated at 30 percent or more, rated 10 or 20 percent in the case of a veteran who has been determined by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs to have a serious employment handicap or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty. Applicant may have to provide a letter from the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs confirming handicap status.

Vietnam-Era Veteran – A person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between February 28, 1961* and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released from active duty with other than a dishonorable discharge; or who was discharged or released from active duty for a service connected disability if any part of the active duty was performed between August 5, 1964 and May 7, 1975. *Service between February 28, 1961 and
